The parties appeared before the Honorable Jon S. Tigar on June 13, 2014, for a status conference before the district court. At that hearing, the Court ordered a competency evaluation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241 et seq to determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant is not mentally competent to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense. With the agreement of counsel for the parties and the defendant, the Court further orders as follows:

1. The government and the defense are each to receive a copy of the report immediately
